

ARCHER

We dedicate this 1959 Annual to Mr. O. E. Ehrhart for the many good things done for the Village of Antwerp; such as preserving its history, for the large collection of wild life placed in our school library and the many occasions you have shown your pictures to the school and community.

Class Prophecy

Recently, while traveling through the West, we drifted into the town of Cinnamon City, founded by the 90's. Being tired after a long ride we decided to bed down our horses for the night at Reynold's Stables, owned and operated by Elizabeth Reynolds. We were hungry, so we began to look for a place to eat. We came upon a run down restaurant called 'It's a Living Place,' owned by Ivy DeLong. At the door we noticed our ten gallon hats with the hat check girl, Betty Cottrell. We were greeted by the hostess, Peg Leg and the former Bat Rogers. We were invited to sit at the table of the Cinnamon Mayor, Remy Derek. From him we learned how an old prospector, Lynn Bute first settled this country. It seems that old man Bute made an agreement with Big Setting Bull, Paul Reinhart. About ten years later Jim and Joyce Miller, the former Joyce Martin, came in the last and brought a tribe of their own. The town soon grew in size, so a sheriff was soon needed in case any trouble should appear, such as a spearing horse going through town. None other than Dave McKeon was appointed. The mayor gave us a complete history of the town.

Just as he finished, the floor show began. It was "Betty and Her Boppers," led by Betty Eberson. Among some of her girls were Judy Strock, Frances Winn, and Karen Banks. The band was way out. There was Denny Clinton on the piano, Dale Dull on the drums, and Bob Knorr at the fiddle.

In the far corner, Ed Klender, the famous card shark was dealing out a couple of hands of Old Maid. The game wasn't going so well for one of the players, Florence Dunderman so she drew her gun and shot the guy across the table, who just happened to be the Deputy Joe Chester Vail. Just then a Texas Ranger Mike Kruk came bursting into the room. He began questioning the waiter, Dane Beer. Well sir, the waiter was just about to tell who had done in Chester when another shot rang out. Everyone turned towards the door when in walks Big Crook Terry Ross the meanest hombre this side of the Mexican border. And he wasn't alone either. No sir, he had his bosom buddy, Byron McMichael with him. Seems this McMichael character, alias "Mat" was a notorious outlaw wanted in 11 states.

Well, the Texas Ranger wasn't gonna stand for all this shootin' and fightin' so he took everyone to jail and locked them up.

Back in the restaurant there's a big commotion startin'. It seems several of the girls, Peggy Anne Williams, Jiving Judy, Donnell and Beverly Livewire Grossman, are having a disagreement about who's gonna be taken home by that fancy dude, Bob Howard. It wasn't too long before there was a good few a-going and one of the girls drew a knife and stabbed Peggy Anne. One of the waitresses, Shiftless Shirley Sudlow, also a card shark, ran over to get Doctor George Doctor and his pretty nurse, Ann Erter Doctor (she was also the doctor's wife.) Soon the Texas Ranger took the girls away to jail and thus having been a long day, we decided to turn in for the night.

Class Will

I, Randy Derck being of sound mind, will to Terry Monroe my laziness and ability to sleep in study hall with my eyes open.

I, Betty Cottrell, will to Mary Ann Lucas my neat locker provided she doesn't have to stand back when she opens it, as I did, and to Linda Cottrell my ability to type provided she doesn't exceed my 20 words per minute record.

I, Michael Kaduk, will to Kelly Tracy one pack of chewing gum. I guarantee each stick will turn into a cough drop when the teacher catches you chewing it.

I, Judy Donnell will to Barbara Savage my ability to get out of class, and to Sue Bromogem a chance to live across the field from "you know who."

I, Terry Ross, do will to Larry Miller the privilege of sitting in my old seat beside Karen Heckleman provided it is taken to the utmost advantage, and to Karen Sessler my chemistry table provided you do not spill any acid stains on it and give it passionate and loving care.

I, Lorene Dunderman, will to Joyce Don't the honor to have my assigned seat in study hall providing she occupies it more than I did and to Paul Howard the ability "to do anything he wants to," providing it's legal.

I, Dennis Clinton, will to Bob Dunderman the ability to make his car a 'rust hole', and to Dick Horney my basketball locker door to take care of and cherish the rest of his high school basketball career.

I, Pat Rogers, will to Marvin Temple my ability to help Mr. Fleck lose the rest of his hair in chemistry lab and to Bob Swan my ability to keep calm during basketball games.

I, Paul Reinhart, will to Steve Dersch my torn government book providing he treasures it as much as I did.

I, Peggy Williams will to Laurenda Hunt my place in Home Ec class next year and everything that goes with it.

I, Dale Dull, being of sound mind and body, will to Lee Carr my ability to listen in government class with only one eye open.

I, Beverly Grossman, will to Mary Schooley all the fun I had this year in chemistry lab.

I, Diane Beer, will to Harl Fisher and Kelly Knuckles my ability to stay awake in government class.

I, Frances Winn, will to Kirby Mavis my ability to get along with Terry Ross.

I, Edward Klerder, leave my position as senior manager to Jay Snook and Winfield Meek provided they battle it out themselves as to which one will be the head man.

I, Ann Litter, will to Pat Smith my ability to get along with the Ronnies and to Frank Campbell my chemistry lab table and all the beautiful equipment.

I, Byron McMichael will to Nancy Winnemier her old friend Harry Joe.

I, Betty Bowers will to Jerry Neely my government book provided that he doesn't erase the names on it and to Diane Stumphy my ability to arrive at school just after the bell.

I, Joe Vail, leave my back row seat and all the points I racked up in government class.

I, Karen Banks, being of sound mind, do hereby leave to Steven Lambert my ability to pay attention to Mr. Foster in government class, and to Delores Coon my old locker 81 providing she gives it monthly cleaning and loving care.

I, Bob Howard, will to Bob Boesch my good luck in chemistry and my ability to keep out of trouble.

I, George Doctor, will to Donald Mabis my ability not to be late to school.

I, Bob Knorr, will to Virginia Meyer my well-used government book.

I, Jim Miller, will to Sam Mees (because of his height) my spot on the basketball team and to Dennis Shunerk my ability to get along with everyone--especially certain girls.

I, Dave Nelson, will to Regina Meyer the knowledge of understanding book-keeping.

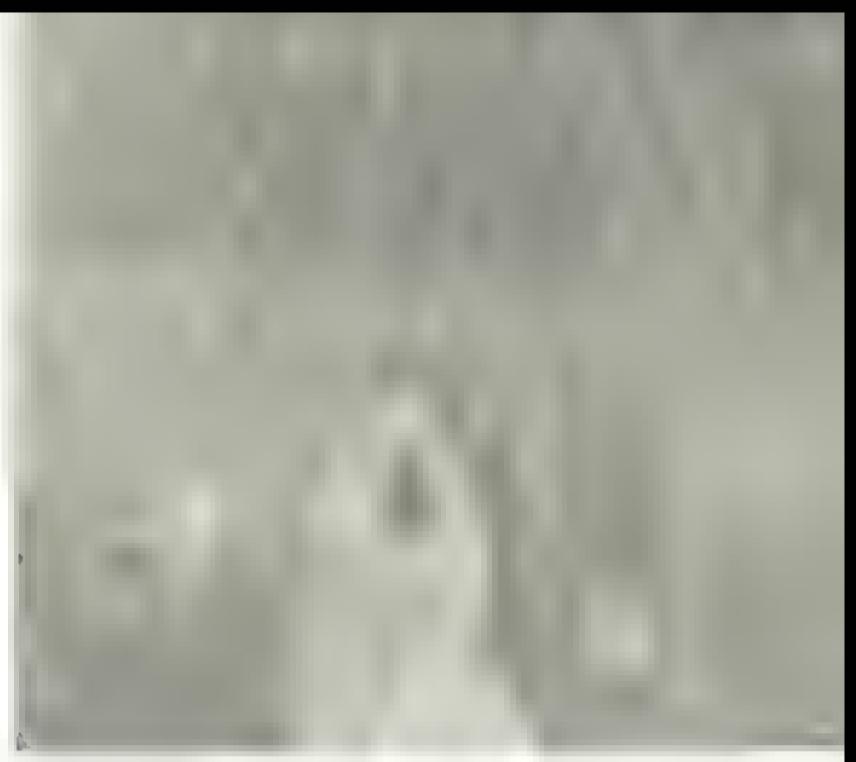

I, Judith Strook, do hereby will my perfect attendance record in my senior year to Janet Bowers, who is trying hard to keep up with my good record.

I, Lynn Bate, will to Jerry Balser my leg in the Mile Relay next year. Good luck Jerry!!

I, Shirley Sudlow, will to Karen Heckleman my ability, which I don't have, not to eat cauliflower for Mrs. Nihiser.

I, Riv DeLong being of sound mind and body, I think do hereby will to Mrs. McCalla "myself," my three lockers, and a year's supply of sleeping pills for study hall.

I, Elizabeth Reynolds, will to Neva Jo Barker my government book in hopes that she gets better grades than I did and to Beverly Hook the ability to go steady longer than I did.

Senior Band

Approximately fifty-two members make up the Antwerp High School Band, under the direction of Mrs. Seslar.

Several of the band members attended the Teen-Age Concerts sponsored by Fort Wayne Philharmonic Orchestra. These concerts were designed to extend the musical horizon of some serious-minded students of music, while to others it was mostly for pure enjoyment.

The main activity of the band this year was the annual "Spring Concert," at which time several selected numbers were played. Also during this school term the band made a recording for radio station WONW Defiance, which was later broadcasted over the air.

To many of the members, the privilege of playing a concert at the Ohio State Fair in Columbus this past summer will long be remembered.

Junior Band

Members of the junior band number approximately twenty-six. This band is also under the leadership of Mrs. Seslar and is an intermediate step to the Senior Band. The members are just about capable of advancing to the Senior Band for further training.

Beginners Band

Usually pupils from the fifth grade are eligible to become a beginner on an instrument. Total membership ranges up to around twenty. Mrs. Seslar extends to them the necessary training.

Thus organization tends to give experience of playing instruments together as a group and having the students become more acquainted with different sounds of the instruments. The band practices band music and the members of the beginners band always look forward to the day when they become official members of the Senior Band.

HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

The chorus consists of fifty selected members of the upper four grades. The chorus tends to strive for balance which is definitely needed for a good chorus. This year royal blue choir robes were purchased and the chorus wore them for the first time at the P. T. A. meeting that was held in April. These robes will also be used for graduation ceremonies. The spring concert was the main activity that the chorus participated in this year.

Mr. Decker the faculty advisor, and the staff have tried earnestly to make the "Archer" an even better book than those published in recent years.

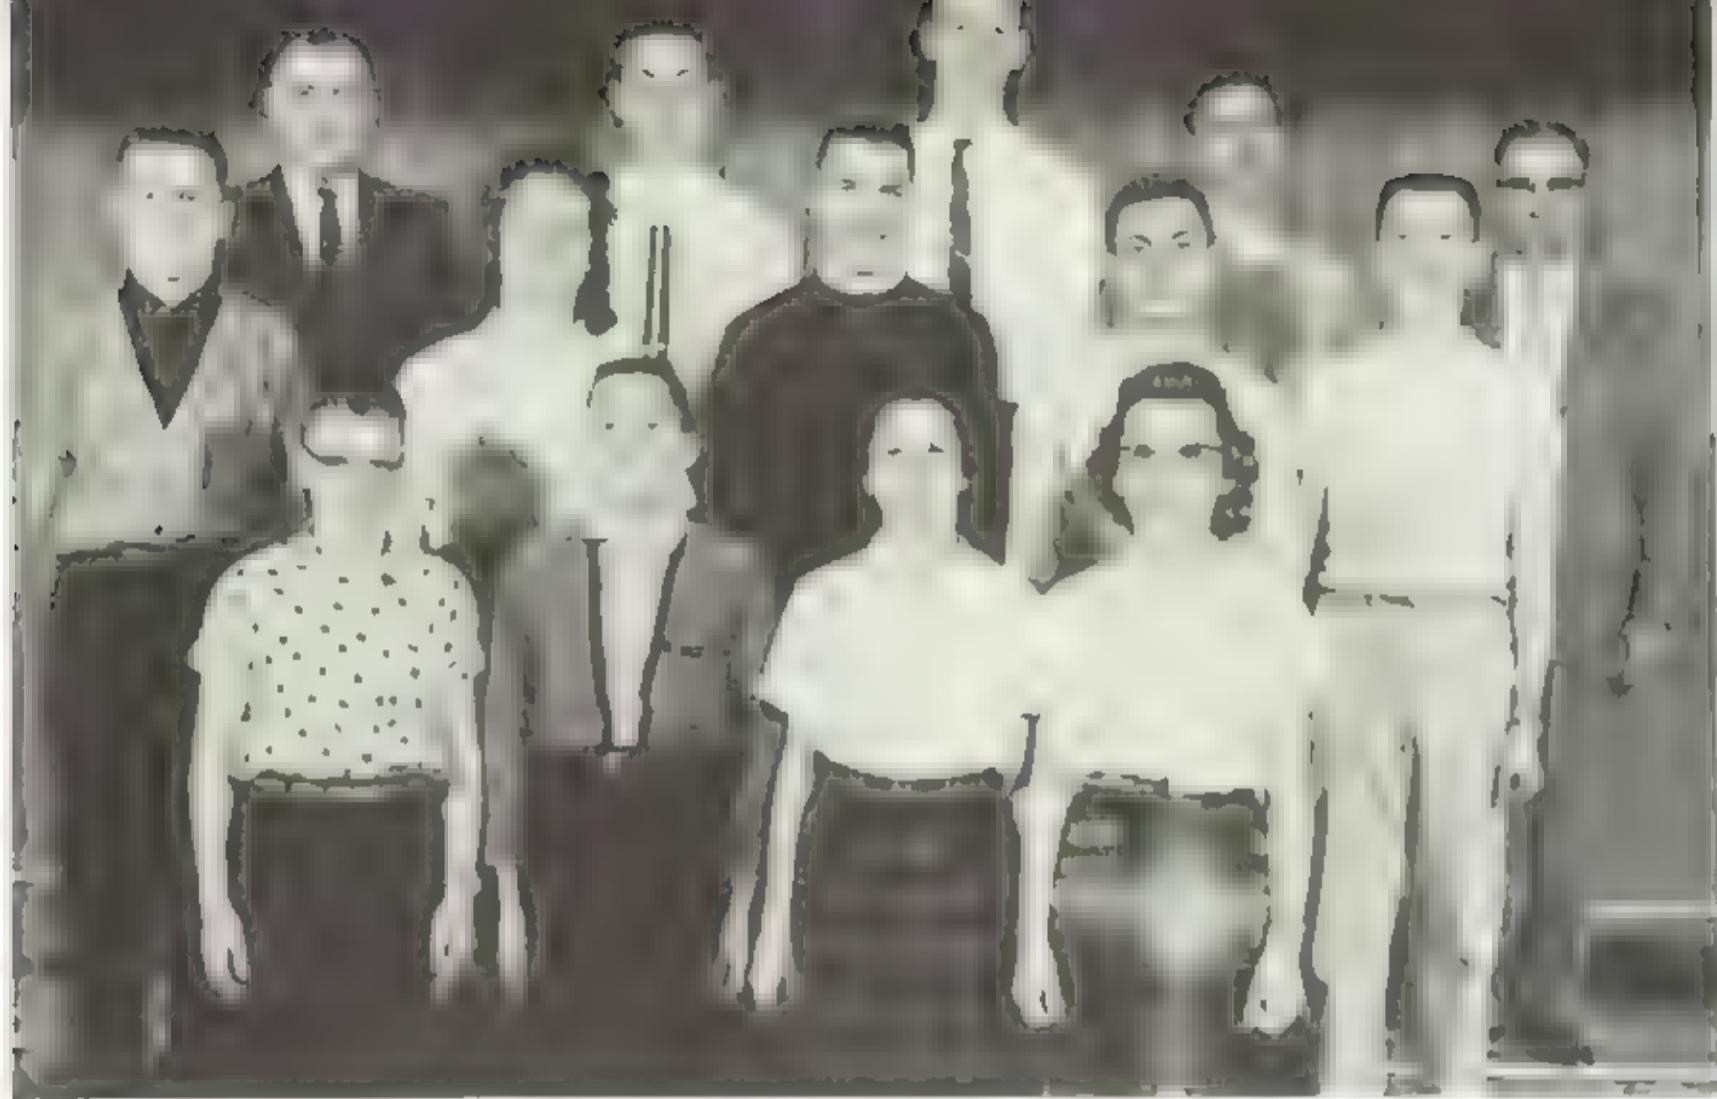

This year's annual is scheduled for late summer delivery in order that the entire school year may be included.

The staff and Mr. Decker hope that this book will bring back many happy memories of the good old school days of 1958-1959.

In Memory of Martin Neidhardt

The student body of Antwerp High School would like to pay a small tribute to Mr. Martin Neidhardt, who has served our school for the past seventeen years as custodian, fireman, and close friend.

We deeply regret the death of Mr. Neidhardt and are in sympathy with family and friends.

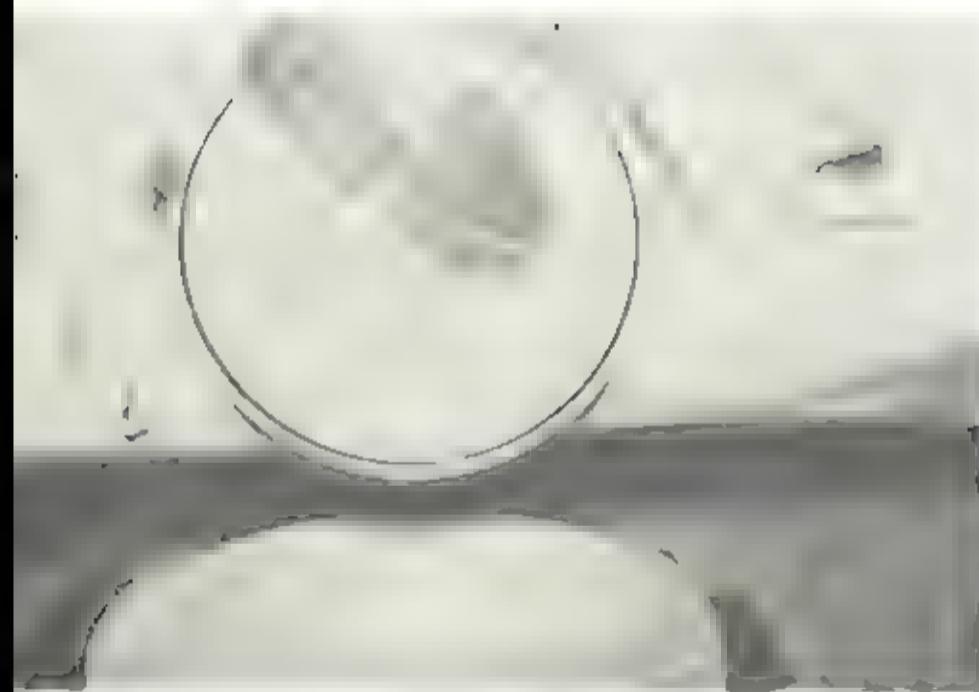

Mart, as he was known by all the students, will be greatly missed and long remembered.
